Sixty-Four of the Fleetest Coursers in America Entered in Waterloo Cup.

ELEVEN STATES REPRESENTED.

Owners of the Crack Dogs of Cali fornia, Texas, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa Have Entered.

Montana, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Illinois Dakota, Colorado, Missouri and other West-ern States met at the Lindell Hotel last night and nominated sixty-four of the best greyhounds for the great Waterloo Cup.

For the benefit of the uninitiated it may be explained that the Waterloo Cup is the greatest coursing event of the year, and is to coursing what the American Derby of the Brocklyn Handicap is to horse racing. The event will be run off at Delmar Park, beginning at 19 a. m. to-day and continuing until Sunday evening.

The stake filled to its limit, sixty-four degs, and many intending nominators could not secure the coveted opportunity to run their dogs. Monsoon, last year's winner, was very fortunate to get in the stake this year. Through the courtesy of Mr. Kel-logg of Iowa, who drew Frisco Lad, Mr. Becker was enabled to get Monsoon in. The very best dogs of California, Bacra-mento Boy, Rural Artist Acolus, Black Coon and Viking, are in the stake. From Butte come Confidence and others. From Texas come Mr. Lyon's lot, all with the prefix "Texas" to their names. Kansas and Nebraska are represented by the Anheuser-Lowe-Turner lot, all good ones. Nebraska has the crack Prairie Bird and Nebraska has the crack Frairie Bird and others in the stake. Colorado has J. E. H., Mountain Lion, Lord Butte and other stars. Chicago sends Troublesome and Barefoot Goy to meet the best greyhounds the world can afford. St. Louis has a fine lot in Messrs. H. H. Orthwein, G. L. Crawford, J. J. Lavin and other local owners have a very thorough representation in the stake. SACRAMENTO BOY'S GOOD CHANCES.

SACRAMENTO BOY'S GOOD CHANCES.

Sharps of the coursing field think that Sacramento Boy, the great California champion, twice winner of the coast championship, has the best chance to win the great Waterloo Cup. Barefoot Boy, Acolus, Laughing Water, Troublesome, Prairle Bird, North Pole, Mountain Llon and Biack Coon are also highly thought of. Coursing will begin at 10 a. m. to-day.

Two courses will be run in the Waterloo Cup, bringing if from sixty-four to sixteen dogs, and one course in the Waterloo purse. That will give each dog running two courses to-day.

The purse is a stake for the thirty-two dogs beaten in the first round of the Cup. The Plate is a stake for the sixteen dogs beaten in the second round of the Cup. In all nearly $3,000 will be distributed between the winning dogs. First money in the Waterloo Cup will be worth $50. The runner-up or second dog will receive $255, the next two dogs $150 each and the next $35.90 each. Thus every dog winning two courses wins some money in the Cup.

First money in the purse, a 32-dog stake, will be worth $200. The runner-up or second dog will get $100, the next two $50 each and the next $25 each. Thus winners of two courses in the Waterloo purse save their entry fee.

In the Waterloo Plate first money will the next $25 each. Thus winners of two courses in the Waterloo purse save their entry fee.

In the Waterloo Plate first money will be worth $100, while the runner-up will receive $50. The next two dogs will get $37.50 each and the next $25 each. Thus all winners of a course in the Plate will get, at least, their nomination fee back.

Judge John Grace of San Francisco, the leading coursing judge of the America, arrived in St. Louis yesterday. Slipper Jim Grace, his son, came with him. The Graces, father and son, excel in their respective lines and are admittedly without superiors in America.

The local coursing grounds are in splendid condition and everything points to the best and most thoroughly representative coursing match ever seen in America.

STATE'S ATTORNEY CAUSES

harges of Obstructing the Jury Are Preferred Against a Member at Edwardsville.

In the Madison County Circuit Court a Edwardsville yesterday afternoon, State's Attorney R. J. Brown of Venice presented to the presiding officer, Judge William Hartzell, of Chester, a petition setting forth that there was great friction in the Grand Jury room, which adjoins the Circuit Court room, and requesting that Edward Yages of Alton, a Grand Juror, be removed from that body, alleging as cause gross official The filling of the document created a sensation in the courtroom. It set forth that

Yager "has persistently obstructed the cause of justice, and the proper and impartial investigation of alleged crimes and misdemeaners, particularly in the cases of Peter Hartman and Gus Soehlman, charged with the murder of Henry Sm th. June 39, 1902, by willfully, mall jously and corruptly. as recording clerk, changing the test mony of witnesses as delivered under oath; re-fusing to record such parts as tended to show their guilt, and recording such testi-mony in such manner as to be misleading and contradictory to the jactual statements. "Also by insisting on getting the opin-ions of witnesses that the affair was a ions of witnesses that the affair was a mere saloon brawl and that the defendant. Hartman, did not intend to hurt any one; by repeatedly objecting to the State's Attorney being permitted to question witnesses; disputing statements of the State's Attorney as to what law is; by making a motion and calling a vote of the Grand Jury to have the State's Attorney excluded from the Grand Jury room, etc."

The court thereupon emeres an order that The court thereupon entered an order tha The court thereupon entered an order that the accused show cause by I o'clock why he should not be removed. An officer was sent to notify Yuger, who, upon entering the courtroom and hearing one charges, asked that the court excuse him from service on the body. He was accordingly released from duty as a Grand Juror. The action is rare, but it will not affect the deliberations of the jury. There are usually twenty-three jurymen, but as the law requires but sixteen to transact business there will be no appointment made to fill Yager's place.

CHARGES BREACH OF CONTRACT. Mrs. Helen Claus Sues Commercial College for $1,000 Damages.

Mrs. Helen Claus yesterday entered suit the East St. Louis City Court for her daughter, Mary, against James A. Mitchell and F. L. Hamlin, managers of the East St. Louis College of Commerce, for $1,000 damages.

The sult is the result of a dispute between the mother and the College of Commerce as to the length of time the girl should be instructed. It is alleged by the mother that the sum of $100 was pail to the college for a complete education of the girl, and she charges that her daughter was not prepared for a position.

The defense is that all that was possible was done for the girl, and that if she could not learn that it was not the fault of the school nor the teachers. St. Louis College of Commerce, for $1,000

FORECLOSURE SUIT ON TRIAL. Defendant Claims He Did Not Receive Receipts.

A foreclosure suit interesting to attorneys and real estate men of East St Louis is being tried in the East St. Louis City Court. The suit was brought by H. Reis to foreclese a mortgage on property held by John Zellerman. foreclese a mortgage on property neid by John Zellerman.

Evidence presented yesterday showed that Zellerman had purchased a house and lot on the time-payment plan from Leo J. Scherrer. The cost was $2.2% and he agreed to pay $39 a month. Scherrer he.d a mortgage on the property and the notes which Zellerman had sgned. It was shown in court yesterday that the mortgage had run but six months and that Zellerman had paid $39 a month. He did not receive consecutive notes or receipts for this money, he claimed. In the meantime the mortgage was sold to Mr. Reis, who attempted to foreclose.

Finger Severed by a Door. Eugenia, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Isselhardt of Belleville. lost the first joint of the little finger on her left hand last evening. The child's finger was caught by a swinging door and the joint was cut off as clean as if it had been amoutated by a surgeon. The child suffered but little inconvenience, and after the injury was bound up by her parents resumed playing with the other children. FRISCO AFFAIRS SATISFACTORY.

City. Mr. Yoakum said:

"What we have accomplished in the way of centering control by ownership of the Frisco in St. Louis has been sufficiently covered, and I have nothing at present to say in regard to announcements which have been made unofficially.

"Frisco affairs are rapidly assuming that shape where the road will be more than ever a great factor in the development of the Southwest, and things in general are satisfactory."

Mr. Togath speared at headquarters again yes-terday.

An original phrase of Mr. Yoakum's,
"Movement means money," has been adopted by the general manager's department,

SHOE PALACE IS PROPOSED.

Plans Have Been Drawn to Be Pre-sented to World's Fair Officials. The shoe manufacturers of St. Louis propose the erection of a special building at the World's Fair to house the shoe and leather exhibits. J. J. Werthelmer, president of the Werthelmer-Swartz Shoe Compayn, has had a firm of architects draw upplans for a shoe and leather palace. If the approval of other large boot and shoe dealers is obtained, effort will be made to induce the World's Fair officials to look with favor on the idea.

The proposition is that the shoe manufacturers undertake the erection of the building, which, if carried out along the lines now contemplated, will cost $250,000. The exhibits would range from an up-to-date shoe plant, by which the modern method of turning out footgear would be made apparent, to the tedious labors of the primitive shoemaker. "In such a building," says Mr. Wertheimer, "people might compare the tanned leather of ancient Egypt, of the 'sandal shoon' of the Pligrim, with the modern shoe of the Twentieth-Century man." leather exhibits. IRISH ASSOCIATION ORGANIZES.

Plan Is Adopted to Raise $250,000 for World's Fair Exhibit. Officers of the Itish National World's Fair Association met at the New St. James Hotel last night for the purpose of launching subscriptions for the building and exhibit which the association proposes to have at the World's Fair, James A. Rear-don, president of the association, presided at the meeting.

The association will organize a corporation under the laws of Missouri to erect a building to exhibit the manufactures, arts, products, industry, history and literature of Ireland at the World's Fair.

Oklahoma Election in Doubt. Guthrie, Ok., Nov. 7.—Only the official count will determine the election for Congress in Oklahoma. The Republicans claim the election of B. S. McGulre by 250 majority, while the Democratic Committee has fairly definite returns showing the majority of William Cross to be 227. Official returns from Beaver and Day counties, in the remote Western section of Oklahoma, will not be received before Saturday. Delegate Flynn (Rep.) to-day said: "Cross is elected."
